

STALLION CONTRACT RULES

Stallion contract rules in conjunction with Stallion Contract

PLEASE NOTE: Northwest Missouri Stallion Owner's Futurity is acting as nothing more than a selling agent of the Stallion Owner and he/she in turn has agreed to donate the purchase price of the stallion service fee to the NWMSOF and agrees to comply with all rules and changes made by the NWMSOF.

1. To be an eligible stallion.
 - A. The stallion owner must donate a breeding (contract) of the stallion to the NWMSOF to be auctioned off starting at $\frac{1}{2}$ of the current years breeding fee.
 - B. This contract may be purchased by the Mare Owner or may be bought back by the Stallion Owner.
 - C. The donated stallion breeding fee must be sold and/or paid for by September 1, annually. If the fee(s) are not paid by September 1, all of those stallion foals will not be eligible for that contract year's futurity.
2. Contracts
 - A. No prepaid contracts or chute fees accepted.
 - B. Stallion fee(s) are set at their advertised fee for one (1) year.
 - C. Private Treaty (PT) bidding will start at $300.00, unless otherwise stated by stallion owner to be higher.
 - D. That the breeding season in force for this contract begins February 1, and closes June 30; unless another closing date has been agreed upon between Stallion Owner and Mare Owner. A mare owner shall be entitled to one (1) return privilege in the following year for the same mare, or in the event of the death of said mare (or vet-certified breeding unsoundness); a substitute mare. All information must be provided to the NWMSOF Board of Directors prior to the Annual Futurity Show.
 - E. That should the above named stallion die or become unfit for breeding purposes, upon proper verification of the above from the stallion owner, there will be a $100.00 TRANSFER fee required by the Mare Owner to transfer this stallion contract to another available stallion during the CURRENT year ONLY. There will be NO REFUNDS.
 - F. Stallion Owner(s) are not responsible for any disease, accident, sickness and/or death of mare and/or foal.
 - G. Breeders Certificates will be furnished when the foal is on the ground and all services, fees, etc. are paid in full.
3. Donating a stallion contract.
 - A. Stallion contracts that are listed for the date of the stallion auction will start for $\frac{1}{2}$ of the years' regular advertised breeding fee or \$300.00; whichever is greater.
 - B. All stallion contracts must be received by September 1, annually. No contracts will be accepted after that date.
4. Purchase of a Stallion contract.
 - A. The stallion contract will be auctioned off to the highest bidder and must be paid in full the night of the auction (if bidder is present).
 - B. Phone in bids must be paid in full within seven (7) days or they will be offered to the second bidder; then it goes back to public.
 - C. If the stallion contract does not sell at the annual stallion auction, it will then be sold on a first come first serve basis. Whoever purchases the contract must pay for the contract within seven (7) days of verbally, written, or orally purchasing said stallion contract.
 - D. If the stallion contract is not sold by March 1 (postmarked), then the stallion owner must buy it back to keep the stallion's foals eligible for the Futurity Show for that contract year. The Stallion Owner will have until September 1, to pay $\frac{1}{2}$ of the current years regular advertised breeding fee of \$300.00; whichever is greater.
5. Mare Owner(s)
 - A. Mare Owner(s) must notify the Stallion Owner if their mare does not settle during the current year breeding season.
 - B. All arrangements and agreement(s) must be between the Mare Owner and Stallion Owner.
 - C. The Mare Owner will be responsible for all mare care and expenses including any veterinary expenses.
 - D. Mare must be halter broken and in sound breeding condition. Health papers and/or Coggins will be at the Stallion Owner's request. The Mare Owner may be asked to sign a contract produced by the Stallion Owner.
 - E. If the Mare Owner and Stallion Owner cannot work out any issues/problems; either party is allowed to bring the issue to the Board of Directors. There will be no guarantee(s) to any outcome(s) as the NWMSOF is ONLY ACTING AS NOTHING MORE THAN A SELLING AGENT OF THE STALLION OWNER.
